

INC. 5000 RECOGNIZES SOUTHERN NEVADA BUSINESSES IN LIST OF FASTEST GROWING PRIVATE COMPANIES IN AMERICA

Local U.S. immigrant visa processor, RapidVisa, is the only consumer product and services company in Nevada to be featured four years in a row

Las Vegas, NV – August 14, 2019 – RapidVisa, the industry pioneer in online U.S. immigrant visa processing, has been recognized as one of the fastest growing private companies in America by Inc. 5000 for the fourth year in a row, ranking 3,455 of 5000.

The only full-service non-lawyer immigration solutions company on the list, RapidVisa was named the 20th fastest growing in Southern Nevada and 25th in Nevada, among the likes of 33 other notable local companies such as Hyperion Partners, TruFusion, Southwest Geotechnical, Goettl Air Conditioning and Plasticard Locktech International. With a three-year growth of 102%, RapidVisa is ranked 4th out of all consumer product and service companies in Southern Nevada, and 232nd nationwide.

RapidVisa was founded by CEO, Ben Ives, after he met his wife in the Philippines and went through the immigration application process to bring her to the United States. As a software engineer, Ives imagined a simpler process for visa applicants than what he experienced, and developed the program for what would become RapidVisa.

“Since 2009, we have processed more than 50,000 green card and visa applications, reuniting loved ones and families from all over the world, and it’s an honor to be recognized for our hard work and rapid growth,” said RapidVisa founder and CEO, Ben Ives. “After ten years in business, it’s a huge accomplishment to have more than 60 employees across multiple international offices, with plans to expand again in the near future.”

RapidVisa streamlines the U.S. immigration process through its innovative software, high-quality multimedia content and high-level customer service. With pride in being America’s leading and most trusted provider in non-lawyer immigration services, RapidVisa offers low cost, full-service immigration solutions including phone and chat support seven days a week in multiple languages, for one all-inclusive fee.
